Welcome to The City Hotel

The City Hotel has offered warmth, good food and hospitality to the traveller since it was built as a coaching house around 1775. Much has changed since 1775, and today you will find that the City Hotel is a most prestigious town centre hotel. It offers a wide range of services and facilities which will appeal to those visiting Dunfermline on business or pleasure.

Dunfermline, in the Ancient Kingdom of Fife, is the former capital of Scotland. It is ideal as a touring base with Stirling, Edinburgh and Perth each only half an hour's easy drive away. The Borders to the south and the Highlands to the north are only an hour distant. For your function or business conference you will be pleased to discover that the town is served by a mainline railway station and has superb motorway access to the north, south and west. Edinburgh airport is only twelve miles away.

The hotel boasts 32 very comfortable bedrooms. Each bedroom enjoys private facilities and has been tastefully furnished and decorated. You will appreciate the range of accommodation, complimentary tea and coffee making facilities, free Wi-Fi service, alongside the convenience of a city centre location.

“Reception staff very friendly, room was lovely, freshly decorated with a kettle, coffee and biscuits. The bathroom was spotless, with plenty towels and a good shower.”

Weavers Bar and Restaurant

Weavers Bar and Restaurant is named after the one time main industry of Dunfermline, textiles. Weavers offers comfortable surroundings with a friendly atmosphere, there is an extensive menu offering a wide variety of dishes from the traditional to the more adventurous. Weavers is the ideal venue for a snack or a full three course meal, all complimented by the fine selection of wines, beers and spirits.

The Weavers bar and restaurant now benefits from the recent addition of its modern bright conservatory, boasting comfortable booth seating and spacious surroundings. Or why not chill out with a drink on our balcony in the summer months, perfect for relaxing with friends.
